

SANDERLING RESORT HOSTS ROMANTIC SOUTHERN WEDDINGS
Outer Banks Resort Offers Picture Perfect Backdrops for Saying "I Do"

DUCK, NC – Nestled on the Currituck Sound just steps from peaceful waters and breathtaking views of the Atlantic Ocean, Sanderling Resort is renowned for its enchanting weddings on the Outer Banks. The resort's 13-acre sea-to-sound picturesque location lends itself to being the perfect southern wedding destination. Recently, Sanderling Resort was honored as one of The Knot's "Best of Weddings 2017" list and is a Style Me Pretty Little Black Book Member. The resort continues to wow couples and their wedding attendees year after year.

From a beachfront paradise to a scenic event lawn, Sanderling Resort offers couples the ideal backdrop for the most important day of their lives. The following venues are available for special occasions:

- Pavilion at Sanderling - As the resort's premier wedding facility, the Pavilion at Sanderling and adjacent gazebo offers unparalleled water views of the serene Currituck Sound in a climate-controlled permanent structure that accommodates picture perfect weddings year-round.
- The Beach - A stunning setting for up to 200 guests, the beach provides the perfect casual and natural site for romantic sunset weddings.
- Event Lawn - The 5,600-square-foot Event Lawn features an elevated observation deck overlooking the Atlantic Ocean. The lawn serves as a scenic venue for an elegant outdoor occasion and can be tented to accommodate events year-round.
- Event House and Deck - Located on the ocean side, the 1,500-square-foot Event House offers indoor seating for up to 80 people for wedding and dining events. The new Event Deck serves as an outdoor location for ceremonies and receptions alongside the fire pit.
- Keeper's Loft – Located on the second floor of the historic Lifesaving Station, Keeper's Loft offers views of the Currituck Sound and accommodates up to 50 guests.

Couples can have the intimate beach wedding of their dreams without having to plan a thing. Sanderling's expert wedding coordinator takes the stress out of arranging the details from start to finish, leaving couples to enjoy their special day. Sanderling's elopement packages offer couples a complete, intimate wedding ceremony with all the special touches. There are so many ways to say "I Do" at Sanderling:

- Keeper's Loft Elopement Package – This intimate reception is designed for parties of 15-40 guests and provides the ideal setting for a romantic sunset wedding. A three-course wine paired dinner is served at Keeper's Loft overlooking the Currituck Sound.
- Kimball's Kitchen Elopement Package – This elopement package can accommodate 20-60 guests for a romantic beachfront wedding and four-course wine paired dinner at the AAA Four Diamond Kimball's Kitchen.
- Pavilion Elopement Package – Set at the premier wedding venue at the Sanderling, the Pavilion elopement package hosts 15-50 guests year-round with the gorgeous Currituck Sound as a backdrop.

Sanderling Weddings – 2

- Event House & Deck Elopement Package – Showcasing Sanderling’s ideal oceanside setting, this package—designed for 20-60 guests—includes a beach ceremony with chairs, a beer canoe, s’mores at the fire pit, and a reception-style dinner for post-nuptial celebrations.
- Ocean Deck Elopement Package – Designed for up to 15 guests, this package offers couples a picturesque beach setting for nuptial exchanges, in addition to a three-course dinner with wine pairings.

Emphasizing seasonally and locally sourced food, Banquet Chef Tony Pentecost creates menus dedicated to the resort’s philosophy of simply delicious cuisine rooted in Sustainable, Organic, Artisanal and Local ingredients – a concept referred to as S.O.A.L. Elevated cuisine is complemented by newly enhanced action station options that range from Mac n’ Cheese bars and Shrimp and Grits stations to gourmet S’mores stations.

###

About Sanderling Resort

Sanderling Resort, the only full service resort on the Outer Banks of Duck, NC, has beckoned families and couples to its picturesque shores for generations. The property recently completed a transformative, multi-phase, renovation project, revealing a fully enhanced resort experience with stunning new guestroom design, culinary leadership and outdoor activities with a distinct sense of place. Sprawled across 13 acres between the Atlantic Ocean and the serene Currituck, Sanderling boasts 120 guest rooms and suites in addition to five rental homes. Amenities include two dune-side pools, oversized fire pits and the newly refreshed Spa at Sanderling. Dining options include the Beach House Lobby Bar; the AAA Four-Diamond Kimball’s Kitchen for local, sustainable fare and the Sandbar deck for sun-splashed bites. On the heels of a stunning enhancement project, the Lifesaving Station and No. 5 Bar presents a reinvigorated setting to experience elevated Carolina comfort cuisine with fresh design and indoor/outdoor lounge. For brides and meeting planners, Sanderling features more than 12,000 square feet of updated indoor and outdoor event space, offering a venue to suit every taste. Sanderling is the premier destination to experience southern hospitality and luxurious amenities in a relaxed, tranquil setting. For more information, please visit www.sanderling-resort.com or call (877) 650-4812.

MEDIA CONTACT:

Murphy O’Brien Public Relations

Melissa Ward | Elaine San Jose

310-586-7159 | 310.586.7141

mward@murphyobrien.com | esanjose@murphyobrien.com